From the Compiler of the Gazette Notifs. Cal. Dd. 21.8.08. States that the Copy turning arrangement of notifications brought to notice will continue until the notifications are ordered to appear in the Gazette in chronological order.

The second commissioners remarks

To Secretary Genl & Rev Dept for necessary. (Init.) K. P. P 21.8.08.

May the suggestion be adopted?

Dr 28/8 VS. Under the present arrangement some confusion is bound to arise especially when two orders from different branches relate to one officer. A Chronological arrangement suggested by the Compiler will be better in some respects: but it has got its own disadvantages. The notifns will get a little mixed. If, for instance some transfers of Rev officers are made some of them being just issued a day or two later, some other notifns relating to other branches, if issued meanwhile would come in.

On the whole it is better to notify by in the order of departments and to observe chronological arrangement among the notifns relating to the same department. (under Sec'y) SBK 25/8/08

The course suggested above is what is now adopted but it may still happen that notns are issued in different departments about the same offrs a same subject, one modifying the other. The best course in such cases would be to refer in the earlier notn in the later one as "in modification of" or "in continuation of" &c. This would prevent mistakes. Where any notn has (Sec'y) to be printed in a special way to give prominence it suitable instns shd be given to the press by the dept issuing the notn CSS 26/8/08

What is meant by "order of Departts" - what departts are meant? & in what order? Please quote an instance of Notifications being issued in different Departts about the same officer or the same subject.

Please study the Fort St George Gazette and see how the Notifications are arranged.

The last issue of the Mysore Gazette published Mr. Iyanarayanan's transfer to Davangere first - and his posting to Victoria Hospl at the end! What is the sense for this topsy turvy procedure?

The new rules should remove the present confusion and not make it worse

The words "the order of Depts" "usual" were introduced in the Draft with refce to the Press Supts D.O. to Mr. Balasundram Iyer dated 4th July 08. He says "The rule is to place all notifns in the following order 1. Sanitary 2 General, (3) Revenue (4) Civil" In order not to disturb the arrangement hitherto followed, the Offce put up a draft stating that Notifns may be published in this order of Departments as usual but stated that, as among the Notifns of the same Department, chronological arrangement is to be observed. It is submitted that, if these instructions were followed, the topsy-turvy arrangement re Mr. Gnanaprayam would have been avoided. Both notifns were by Medical Dept & they ought to be published together, the earlier in date coming first ... the later referring to the earlier as "In Cont.n" ~~etc~~ or "in modification" under para 2 of the draft.

An instance of different notifs regarding the same officer from two depts occurred this way. An Asst. Comr was first posted to B a District for duty This was a notif. in the Revenue Dept. The next day this order was cancelled the was posted to Sec.t for duty. This order issued from the General Branch. Under the Arrangement referred to by Mr Yates, the latter — which was the later in date — was put first. The draft put up by the office would require that the latter notifn should refer to the earlier one, vide order that no confusion may arise

The arrangement in the Fort St George Gazette is as follows: ~~Notifns~~ All Notifns issued by one Department are put together, ~~the~~ according to the serial number of the orders. Thus, Part I Contains Notifications

Dear Mr. Matthan,

Yours just to hand re the Press Probationers' notice in the Gazette, and also the Free Elementary Education notification.

The matter shall have my best attention.

The original date for the Probationers' applications was fixed for July 31st. The Second Councillor altered it to August 31st. Advts. have been sent to the two local papers for three alternate insertions. I will alter the date in these but it is probably too late to do so to-day.

As to the Free Education notification, may I say that, in the absence of instructions, no notification is given extra prominence in the Gazette; but is printed in the usual authorised order, which has been observed for many years. Hence this notification appears under "local Fund," of which, so far as the Gazette is concerned, it is a sub-section. The Secretary made a similar complaint recently about some notification, and I replied as above, and at the same time asked him if, whenever a subject was deemed important,

Dear Mr. Puttanna Chetty,

Thanks for your letter drawing my attention to the topsy-turvy arrangement of notification re Mr. Siddappa's appointments. A similar case happened recently, & is likely to happen whenever an inam office is opened to under different headings. As at present instructed I have to make up the notifications as laid in the note at the head entitled "civil appointments". The difficulty is perhaps best explained in my note to Mr Balasundaram Iyer, which I enclose. Kindly note my concluding sentence in it

Again thanking you,

Yours sincerely,

Lt. Yates

P.S. – I also am of opinion that all notifications should be printed strictly in chronological order; & an official instruction from you would avoid the irregularity you kindly point out.

Government Press,

Bangalore, 4th July, 1908.

Dear Mr. Balasundaram Aiyar,

I am much obliged to you for drawing my attention to the position of some of the paras. in the current issue of the "Gazette."

May I say that the Notifications in question were intentionally so placed. The rule is to place all Notifications in the following order:--1, Sanitary; 2, General; 3, Revenue; 4, Civil Appointments, with their respective sub-sections, such as (a) leave; (b) appointments; (c) transfers; (d) powers and personal questions, and then others. In the present instance Notification No. 59/G... 5-08-1 dated 2nd July 1908, relates to General, and hence it is placed above the Revenue Notification No. R. 2356/5,R. 208-07-17 dated 25th June 1908. But I quite see from the nature of the announcements why there should have been an exception to the standing rule in this case. An intimation to this effect when copy was sent in would have avoided the apparent irregularity.

Yours sincerely,

G.R.S. 26]
